About PBS

For over twenty five years, Pontecorvo Ballet Studios has been helping its students to achieve their dreams in the art of dance and any other areas of life that the students wish. Studying dance teaches young people to focus and prioritize their minds and train their bodies to follow their wishes. And while a key goal is to train dancers to enter the professional world of dance, Pontecorvo Ballet Studios is also proud of the hundreds of young dancers who have gone into the professional worlds of arts management, journalism, technology, law, medicine, physical therapy and more, all strengthened by their ballet training.

Barbara Pontecorvo's students have danced professionally with: San Francisco Ballet, Pennsylvania Ballet, Ballet Met Columbus, Cincinnati Ballet, Ballet San Antonio, Sacramento Ballet, Milwaukee Ballet, Ballet Trockadero de Monte Carlo, Dayton Ballet, Ballet 5:8, Oregon Ballet, Suzanne Farrell and more. They have studied with every major ballet company in the country in the summer and have attended prestigious universities, including Juilliard, CCM, Point Park University and Butler University. Dozens of dancers have gone on to dance professionally.

Dancers at Pontecorvo Ballet Studios know they have the faculty that will work with them to make these wishes happen and it is open to anyone. There is no audition needed to attend Pontecorvo Ballet Studios. Students can join at any time during the year.

Isn't it time for your dancer to begin to achieve their dreams, no matter what they are?

Why PBS?

You have many choices for your child's dance training, but are all dance schools the same? On the following pages describing the PBS curriculum and schedules, check out the Progress Check sections. They describe some of the skills your child should be learning year by year; if you're not seeing those results from your current school, it may be time to switch to PBS.

Pontecorvo Ballet Studios

20 Commercial Way, Springboro Ohio

PBS is a modern, air-conditioned building with large studios, large dressing rooms, lots of parking, spacious restrooms and comfortable waiting area with free wi-fi. Studio 2 can become a theatre with the audience in Studio 3, or the two studios can be combined for large rehearsals.

PBS is 90 seconds from Exit 38 on I75. At the exit, turn east toward Springboro. Turn right at Sharts (first street intersection), turn right at Commercial Way, and PBS is immediately on your right.

PBS is within seconds of Kroger, Walmart, drug stores and restaurants; 5 minutes to Austin Landing; 10 minutes to Dayton Mall; 12 minutes to Cincinnati Premium Outlets.

Performing at PBS

One of the most exciting traditions at PBS is the rehearsal and presentation each year of The Nutcracker. This year the Sugar Plum Fairy, the Snow Queen, their cavaliers, and most important of all, Clara and her Nutcracker Prince, will welcome you to the Kingdom of the Sweets in late fall, so as not to interfere with the holiday season.

Performances will be November 17 & 18. Rehearsals begin September 15.

Our Spring Performance will consist of ballets specifically for our younger dancers (titles to be determined) and a presentation of Swan Lake for the older levels. Dates and location to be determined.

As always, participation in these performances is open to all levels from Beginning Ballet through Adult. Rehearsals will be on weekends following classes for all levels and on some weeknights for the upper levels. There is no 'Costume' or 'Rehearsal' fee to participate, just your commitment to attend all of your rehearsals.

Gem City Ballet (GCB) is a non-profit pre-professional ballet company directed by Barbara Pontecorvo. The company is separate from PBS but is in residence at Pontecorvo Ballet Studios. GCB is open to qualified area dancers age 12 and older from all area ballet schools.

There are rehearsals five days a week, three repertory seasons a year, plus many other smaller performances each year. If you are interested in learning more about GCB and how you can be involved, either as a dancer, Friend of GCB or board member, please speak to Barbara or call 937-550-9245. GCB dancers are not required to attend PBS; the company is open by audition to all qualified area dancers.

Early Years

Creative Movement, ages 3 & 4, is designed to nurture a child's interest in movement and expression through lightly structured activity.

Middle Levels

Ballet IV & V

Ballet IV will take the young dancer through "connecting" steps and stress correct placement and port de bras. A special Pointe Prep class will prepare feet and legs for pointe work. In Ballet V the dancers learn long movement phrases to enhance musicality and stamina. Pointe work is introduced to ladies who have developed sufficient strength. Modern and Jazz classes continue to form a well-educated dancer. A schedule of 3-5 classes per week is common; students beginning pointe work must take at least two ballet classes in addition to their pointe class. All pointe classes must be preceded by a ballet class.

Ballet IV (Age 10+)

Monday	5:30 – 7pm	Ballet
Monday	7 – 8pm	Modern/ Jazz
Wednesday	5:15 – 6:45m	Ballet

Advanced dancers in The Nutcracker

Special Classes

Male Technique

A special weekly class to encourage young men will be on Thursday evenings. Students ages 7 and up will be instructed in the particular strengths needed in today's male dancers.

Men's Class

Adult Classes

PBS offers ballet for adults to enrich their lives and keep them in touch with their bodies. Two levels of ballet are offered. Furthermore, serious adults are also encouraged to take regular classes in their level and perform with PBS students in The Nutcracker and the spring performance.

Men's Class

Thursday 6 – 7pm

Adult Classes

Monday	7:15- 8:45pm	Beg. Adult Ballet
Tuesday	7:30- 9pm	Int. / Adv. Adult Ballet

Professional Training Division

The Professional Training Division (PTD) was formed in 2001 when the acclaimed master teacher and coach Laura Alonso encouraged Barbara to offer special classes to young dancers who were determined to be mentally and physically suited to a career in ballet. The schedule is tiring and exacting, all dancers have class five days of the week. If you feel your dancer is one that Barbara should consider for PTD, you can let her know that your dancer is interested.

Private Lessons

Barbara Pontecorvo will teach private lessons to approved dancers Tuesday evenings from 7:30 – 9pm. If you are interested in private lessons for your dancer, please talk to Barbara directly for approval and pricing.

Monday Morning Classes Homeschoolers

New for the 2018-19 season. Two classes are offered, one for 3 - 5 year old children and one for ages 6-9.

Monday Morning Creative Movement for ages 3 - 5 is a class for very young dancers who are discovering their love for movement, music and imagination. We will learn to recognize all the dynamics and rhythms of music, strengthen and stretch our muscles and imagine all different types of stories. Forty-five minutes of fun!

Monday mornings: 10:15 - 11am.

Monday Morning Beginning Ballet for ages 6+ is a class for the young dancer ready to start barre work and the real technique of ballet. But the fun will still be there as our movements become more stylized but still respond strongly to the music. We will learn to use our feet and understand how beautiful our arms can be.

Monday mornings: 11 - 12 noon.

Beginning Ballet will also be eligible for participation in the PBS production of The Nutcracker.

PBS Faculty

Barbara Pontecorvo, Director, danced professionally with Houston Ballet, Chicago Ballet, Boston Repertory Ballet, Ballet Puertorequenno, and Dayton Ballet during her twenty year performing career and has taught ballet for most of that time. In addition to her primary focus at PBS, Barbara is also Director of Gem City Ballet.

Estelle Bean trained under renowned teachers Eugene Loring, Anthony Tudor, and Robert Joffrey, and brings a wealth of knowledge to PBS dancers.

Christiana Coover began her dance training at Jeanette Popp School of Dance. She trained there for two years and then moved to Nevada with her family and found her love of ballet. She returned to Dayton and began training at Dayton Ballet. When she was 15 she attended a summer program at The Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and was invited to stay and train year round. She finished high school in Pittsburgh and had the opportunity to dance roles in Balanchine's Concerto Borrocco, Nutcracker, Allegro Brilliante, Serenade and more. She also studied at BalletMet, Joffrey Ballet NY, Boston Ballet and more. She began teaching in 2000 and danced professionally with The Alabama Ballet for four years. She has a passion for ballet and brings something special to her students

Gregory Robinson received his dance training at the University of Alabama in Birmingham. His career as a performer, teacher, ballet master, and choreographer, primarily with Dayton Ballet, has spanned more than thirty years. He was named a "Dayton Gem" by the Dayton Daily News. His works have garnered critical praise and funding from regional and national arts agencies including MCACD, Culture Works, the H. Robert Magee foundation, and the NEA.

Lily Seitter graduated with a BFA in Dance Performance from Butler University. She has danced professionally with the Richmond Ballet in Virginia, and with the Merce Cunningham Trust in New York City. She is now dancing with de la Dance Company.

Stephanie Smith danced from the age of three to thirteen in her hometown of St. Albans, WV, and began dancing again after college in Fairfax, Va, where she trained under Jane Masciarelli and Mary Marshall. Stephanie continued her training at Morgantown Dance Studio under Marilyn Pipes, Lauren Slone, Jennifer Lawrence, and Daniel Karasik. She is a former member of the Morgantown Ballet Company and danced with Ballet Lafayette in Uniontown, PA. Stephanie also obtained her certification from Beverly Spell in the nationally renowned Leap 'n Learn Program, and taught ballet at Morgantown Dance Studio and Artistry House in Morgantown, WV.

School Administrator: Olena Brownfield

Dancer Attire

PBS' s dress code is an important part of the discipline instilled in a young dancer. Dancers should stand out in class by virtue of their hard work, not by what they wear. Dancers in Levels I through Advanced may not wear skirts, baggy T-shirts, or shorts. All leg and body warmers must be tight fitting.

Creative Movement and Pre-Ballet ladies wear pink, footless or stirrup tights, no shoes, plain pink leotard, and hair in a pony tail or a bun.

Beginning Ballet through Advanced ladies wear pink, footed tights and pink ballet shoes or pointe shoes if on pointe.

Required leotard colors (plain only) are pink for Creative Movement, Pre-Ballet, Beginning Ballet & Ballet I, dark blue for Ballet II & III, and black for Ballet IV & V. Ballet VI and Advanced may wear any solid color leotard or a unitard. Skirts are not permitted except for Variation and Pointe classes. Hair is worn up and must be in a bun for Ballet III and up.

Boys and Men wear black tights, plain white T-shirt, black or white shoes and white socks, and a dance belt for older boys.

In Modern & Jazz classes all levels may wear any solid color tights and leotard or unitard. Tights for Modern should be footless. Jazz shoes are suggested for Jazz classes.

Clothing for Adult classes should be comfortable and non-restrictive.

Studio Policies

Please Read Carefully

- Pontecorvo Ballet Studios will not be responsible for illness or injury.
- For the safety of the student and to avoid disruption of classes, students arriving more than 15 minutes after class starts will not be permitted to take the remainder of the class.
- Proper dance education requires that the teacher touch the student during class to correct placement and movement when needed.
- All students taking pointe class must take a ballet class immediately preceding.
- Make-Up Classes may be taken in the current or following month for a missed class.
- Tuition cannot be refunded without a Doctor' s letter certifying ill health.

Payment and Registration Terms

There is a $25 non-refundable registration fee for each student.
