About PBS

For over twenty five years, Pontecorvo Ballet Studios has been helping its students to achieve their dreams in the art of dance and any other areas of life that the students wish. Studying dance teaches young people to focus and prioritize their minds and train their bodies to follow their wishes. And while a key goal is to train dancers to enter the professional world of dance, Pontecorvo Ballet Studios is also proud of the hundreds of young dancers who have gone into the professional worlds of arts management, journalism, technology, law, medicine, physical therapy and more, all strengthened by their ballet training. Barbara Pontecorvo's students have danced professionally with: San Francisco Ballet, Pennsylvania Ballet, Ballet Met Columbus, Cincinnati Ballet, Ballet San Antonio, Sacramento Ballet, Milwaukee Ballet, Ballet Trockadero de Monte Carlo, Dayton Ballet, Ballet 5:8, Oregon Ballet, Suzanne Farrell and more. They have studied with every major ballet company in the country in the summer and have attended prestigious universities, including Juilliard, CCM, Point Park University and Butler University. Twenty eight dancers have gone on to dance professionally.

Dancers at Pontecorvo Ballet Studios know they have the faculty that will work with them to make these wishes happen and it is open to anyone. There is no audition needed to attend Pontecorvo Ballet Studios. Students can join at any time during the year.

Isn't it time for your dancer to begin to achieve their dreams, no matter what they are?

Why PBS?

You have many choices for your child's dance training, but are all dance schools the same? On the following pages describing the PBS curriculum and schedules, check out the Progress Check sections. They describe some of the skills your child should be learning year by year; if you're not seeing those results from your current school, it may be time to switch to PBS.

Pontecorvo Ballet Studios

20 Commercial Way, Springboro Ohio

PBS is a modern, air-conditioned building with large studios, large dressing rooms, lots of parking, spacious restrooms and comfortable waiting area with free wi-fi. Studio 2 can become a theatre with the audience in Studio 3, or the two studios can be combined for large rehearsals.

PBS is 90 seconds from Exit 38 on I75. At the exit, turn east toward Springboro. Turn right at Sharts (first street intersection), turn right at Commercial Way, and PBS is immediately on your right.

PBS is within seconds of Kroger, Walmart, drug stores and restaurants; 5 minutes to Austin Landing; 10 minutes to Dayton Mall; 12 minutes to Cincinnati Premium Outlets.

Performing at PBS

One of the most exciting traditions at PBS is the rehearsal and presentation each year of The Nutcracker. This year the Sugar Plum Fairy, the Snow Queen, their cavaliers, and most important of all, Clara and her Nutcracker Prince, will welcome you to the Kingdom of the Sweets in late fall, so as not to interfere with the holiday season. Performances will be November 18 & 19. Rehearsals begin September 16.

Our Spring Performance will consist of ballets specifically for our younger dancers (titles to be determined) and a presentation of Giselle for the older levels. Dates and location to be determined.

As always, participation in these performances is open to all levels from Beginning Ballet through Adult. Rehearsals will be on weekends following classes for all levels and on some weeknights for the upper levels. There is no 'Costume' or 'Rehearsal' fee to participate, just your commitment to attend all of your rehearsals.

Gem City Ballet (GCB) is a non-profit pre-professional ballet company directed by Barbara Pontecorvo. The company is separate from PBS but is in residence at Pontecorvo Ballet Studios. GCB is open to qualified area dancers age 12 and older from all area ballet schools. There are rehearsals five days a week, three repertory seasons a year, plus many other smaller performances each year. If you are interested in learning more about GCB and how you can be involved, either as a dancer, Friend of GCB or board member, please speak to Barbara or call 937- 550- 9245. GCB dancers are not required to attend PBS; the company is open by audition to all qualified area dancers.

Early Years

Middle Levels

Ballet IV & V

Ballet IV will take the young dancer through "connecting" steps and stress correct placement and port de bras. A special Pointe Prep class will prepare feet and legs for pointe work. In Ballet V the dancers learn long movement phrases to enhance musicality and stamina. Pointe work is introduced to ladies who have developed sufficient strength. Modern and Jazz classes continue to form a well-educated dancer. A schedule of 3-5 classes per week is common; students beginning pointe work must take at least two ballet classes in addition to their pointe class. All pointe classes must be preceded by a ballet class.

Ballet IV (Age 10+)

Monday	5:30 – 7pm	Ballet
Monday	7 – 8pm	Modern/ Jazz
Wednesday	6 – 7:30pm	Ballet
Wednesday	7:30 – 8:30pm	Pointe Prep.

- Knows what an adagio is.

Age 11

- Knows why they are or are not allowed to go on pointe.
- Knows what soubresaut means and how to spell it.
- Is starting to look at summer programs 'away'.

Ballet V dancer in The Nutcracker

Advanced Levels

Ballet VI builds self-sufficiency as a dancer, concentration in class, and musicality. Students take six or more classes per week. All pointe classes must be preceded by a ballet class.

Advanced Ballet training advances to the pre-professional level, with students attending seven or more classes each week. Classes are demanding and emphasize performance qualities.

Progress Check

Age 12

- Can perform good consistent double pirouettes with a turned out passé.
- Uses both legs in his/ her entrechat quatre and is working on entrechat six.
- Knows to try everything each teacher tells them, without debate.

Age 13+

Special Classes

Male Technique

A special weekly class to encourage young men will be on Thursday evenings. Students ages 7 and up will be instructed in the particular strengths needed in today's male dancers.

Men's Class

Adult Classes

PBS offers ballet for adults to enrich their lives and keep them in touch with their bodies. Three levels of ballet are offered. Furthermore, serious adults are also encouraged to take regular classes in their level and perform with PBS students in The Nutcracker and the spring performance.

Men's Class

Thursday 6 – 7pm

Adult Classes

Monday 7:15- 8:45pm Beg. Adult Ballet

Tuesday 7:30- 9pm Int. / Adv. Adult Ballet

Thursday 7:15 – 8:45pm Int. / Adv. Adult Ballet

Private Lessons

Barbara Pontecorvo will teach private lessons to approved dancers Tuesday evenings from 7:30 – 9pm. If you are interested in private lessons for your dancer, please talk to Barbara directly for approval and pricing.

Professional Training Division

The Professional Training Division (PTD) was formed in 2001 when the acclaimed master teacher and coach Laura Alonso encouraged Barbara to offer special classes to young dancers who were determined to be mentally and physically suited to a career in ballet. The schedule is tiring and exacting, all dancers have class five days of the week. If you feel your dancer is one that Barbara should consider for PTD, you can let her know that your dancer is interested.

PBS Faculty

Barbara Pontecorvo, Director, danced professionally with Houston Ballet, Chicago Ballet, Boston Repertory Ballet, Ballet Puertorequenno, and Dayton Ballet during her twenty year performing career and has taught ballet for most of that time. In addition to her primary focus at PBS, Barbara is also Director of Gem City Ballet.

Estelle Bean trained under renowned teachers Eugene Loring, Anthony Tudor, and Robert Joffrey, and brings a wealth of knowledge to PBS dancers.

Christiana Coover began her dance training at Jeanette Popp School of Dance. She trained there for two years and then moved to Nevada with her family and found her love of ballet. She returned to Dayton and began training at Dayton Ballet. When she was 15 she attended a summer program at The Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and was invited to stay and train year round. She finished high school in Pittsburgh and had the opportunity to dance roles in Balanchine's Concerto Borrocco, Nutcracker, Allegro Brilliante, Serenade and more. She also studied at BalletMet, Joffrey Ballet NY, Boston Ballet and more. She began teaching in 2000 and danced professionally with The Alabama Ballet for four years. She returned to Dayton to teach and has been a vital part of the faculty at the Dayton Dance Conservatory ever since. She has a passion for ballet and brings something special to her students. She is very excited to begin a new chapter training dancers at Pontecorvo Ballet Studios.

Faculty - cont'd

Michelle Goodman earned a BFA in dance from Wright State University and graduated high school from the Interlochen Arts Academy. She has performed professionally with Walt Disney Productions, the Dayton Opera, the Sorg and Whitewater Opera companies, and La Comedia Dinner Theatre. She has taught at PBS since 1992 and at Wright State University since 1994, where she is a faculty associate.

Karen Hochwalt began her dancing career with the Louisville Ballet during high school. She attended North Carolina School for the Arts and graduated Summa Cum Laude with a BFA in Dance from CCM University of Cincinnati. She was a soloist with the Cincinnati Ballet Co. She later taught with Jon Rodriguez School of Ballet and is currently Adjunct Faculty with Stivers School for the Arts.

Gregory Robinson received his dance training at the University of Alabama in Birmingham. His career as a performer, teacher, ballet master, and choreographer, primarily with Dayton Ballet, has spanned more than thirty years. He was named a "Dayton Gem" by the Dayton Daily News.

His works have garnered critical praise and funding from regional and national arts agencies including MCACD, Culture Works, the H. Robert Magee foundation, and the NEA.

Lily Seitter graduated with a BFA in Dance Performance from

Butler University. She has danced professionally with the Richmond Ballet in Virginia, and with the Merce Cunningham Trust in New York City. She is now dancing with de la Dance Company.

Erin Wheeler began dancing at the age of five and studied under Barbara Pontecorvo. After graduation from Ball State University in 2002 (Bachelor's Degree in Dance Performance and minor in Dance Education), she started her professional career in Los Angeles. Wheeler has performed onstage with Neil Young, appeared on MTV and with a contemporary dance company in Hollywood. She is currently an artist in residence for the Centerville High School Dance Program. When she's not dancing or teaching, she's at home with her two daughters, Emaline and Everly.

Dancer Attire

PBS' s dress code is an important part of the discipline instilled in a young dancer. Dancers should stand out in class by virtue of their hard work, not by what they wear. Dancers in Levels I through Advanced may not wear skirts, baggy T-shirts, or shorts. All leg and body warmers must be tight fitting.

Creative Movement and Pre-Ballet ladies wear pink, footless or stirrup tights, no shoes, plain pink leotard, and hair in a pony tail or a bun.

Beginning Ballet through Advanced ladies wear pink, footed tights and pink ballet shoes or pointe shoes if on pointe.

Required leotard colors (plain only) are pink for Creative Movement, Pre-Ballet, Beginning Ballet & Ballet I, dark blue for Ballet II & III, and black for Ballet IV & V. Ballet VI and Advanced may wear any solid color leotard or a unitard. Skirts are not permitted except for Variation and Pointe classes. Hair is worn up and must be in a bun for Ballet III and up.

Boys and Men wear black tights, plain white T-shirt, black or white shoes and white socks, and a dance belt for older boys.

In Modern & Jazz classes all levels may wear any solid color tights and leotard or unitard. Tights for Modern should be footless. Jazz shoes are suggested for Jazz classes.

Clothing for Adult classes should be comfortable and non-restrictive.

Studio Policies

Please Read Carefully

- Pontecorvo Ballet Studios will not be responsible for illness or injury.
- For the safety of the student and to avoid disruption of classes, students arriving more than 15 minutes after class starts will not be permitted to take the remainder of the class.
- Proper dance education requires that the teacher touch the student during class to correct placement and movement when needed.
- All students taking pointe class must take a ballet class immediately preceding.
- Make-Up Classes may be taken in the current or following month for a missed class.
- Tuition cannot be refunded without a Doctor' s letter certifying ill health.

Payment and Registration Terms

There is a $25 non-refundable registration fee for each student. If you register in advance (no later than August 22), then the registration fee will be applied to the first tuition payment.
